DETAILED ACTION*EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Abstract

A system for enabling touch and feel over the internet provides a three-dimensional representation of a good being sold, that three-dimensional representation being viewable from a number of different directions. --In one embodiment,-- The good being sold is a package and the package is displayed from the number of different directions. --Another embodiment--The present invention has the good being a book, and the inside and outside covers of the book are displayed and specified pages of the book can be displayed. The user can read from either the label or the covers just like as if the were actually handling the good.

Claim 104 is canceled because it depended on claim 91 was previously cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 85-90, 96-103, 105-107 and 121-124 are allowed over prior art.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention which are not found in the prior art either singularly or in combination of a method, comprising in a server of a network, storing a plurality of images representing pages of a book, said images stored with a resolution effective to enable said book to be read; responsive to a request over the network, sending one of said images to a remote node; and determining if the request for pages exceeds a certain threshold, and sending said information only if said threshold is not exceeded. The present invention is directed to these features are not found or suggested in the prior art.

Each independent claim is identified "images stored with a resolution effective to enable said book to be read; responsive to a request over the network, sending one of said images to a remote node; and determining if the request for pages exceeds a certain threshold, and sending said information only if said threshold is not exceeded." The closest prior art Keiser disclose a conventional to provide an improved softcopy reading device which is limited to reading only those books published by a particular publisher; either singularly or in combination fail to anticipate or render the above underline limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
